

Dillon Floral Joins International Floral Distributors

March 27, 2018, Richmond, IN For Immediate Release

Dillon Floral, Bloomsburg, PA has become the newest member of International Floral Distributors, Inc (IFD). Dillon Floral is headquartered in Bloomsburg, PA where the company was established in 1875. Dillon Floral has grown and distributed flowers for five generations providing exceptional personal care to each customer order. "Adding a wholesale distributor of the quality of Dillon Floral to IFD not only expands IFD's distribution area", stated Chris Berglund, President of IFD from Washington Floral Company, "but enhances the overall strength and resources of IFD."

Dillon Floral is a full service, family owned wholesale floral distributor and flower grower led by Rob Dillon and a talented staff of flower professionals. Dillon Floral serves retail and event florists in Pennsylvania, Central New York, as well as, a few towns in New Jersey and Maryland. Dillon Floral sells a wide range of cut flowers, including their own Gerbera Daisies, Alstroemeria, L/A Hybrid and Oriental Lilies from their greenhouse operation. In supplies, Dillon carries all the basics along with a good selection of silks, and a full line of seasonal/holiday decorative items. Their Plant Department offers everything from 3" to 10" foliage, a good selection of potted flowering plants from both local and Canadian growers and they provide customers their own dish gardens.

International Floral Distributors, Inc is a member-owned, marketing group composed of twenty leading wholesale floral distributors. IFD members take advantage of their pooled resources to provide more effective distribution services. IFD is headquartered in Richmond, Indiana. A complete list of IFD members can be found at www.ifd-inc.org. For additional information contact Jeff Lanman at jefflanman@ifd-inc.org.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jeff Lanman

International Floral Distributors, Inc.

765.973.9600

jefflanman@ifd-inc.org